Please describe how climbing has influenced your life. In particular, please describe some meaningful, and or, significant climbing experiences that you have had. What was your role in those events, and what did it mean to you?

What would you, as a climber, like to achieve? How would this scholarship, should you be awarded it, help you reach your goals?

Craigen, as the chairperson of the Mountaineering Committee, as editor of The Crux, as a director of the rock climbing program, and in countless other ways gave much of herself to the Boston climbing community. In that light are there things you would like to contribute to this community?

If, to date, you have had the opportunity to make a contribution to the Boston climbing community you may use the space below to cite it.
